You're apt to like what love whispers in your ear on the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd. Powerful feelings are nice but shouldn't be an excuse to throw caution or common sense to the wind, especially on the 4th or 5th. It is nearly impossible to deny the playful possibility inherent in an invitation on the 13th, 17th, 18th, or 19th, if you'd even want to. Passion sizzles from 28th (New Moon) to 31st.

LIBRA

Demonstrate the ability to get along with others on the job and higher-ups are almost sure to notice on the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd. Much of the progress made on the 4th, 5th, 6th, and 7th comes via the good, old-fashioned route of hard work. Don't stick your head in the sand from the 8th to 12th (Full Moon), especially about issues that can impact health or safety.

A weak link in a chain or flaw in a plan may be unusually vulnerable to exploitation on the 8th, 9th, or 10th. Review specs or instructions more than once if necessary on the 11th. Respect the differences that separate "purely exciting" from "truly reckless" this month, especially on/near the 26th.

Work done to bolster the security of a relationship feels worthwhile from the 20th to 27th.

The New Moon of the 28th raises heightened possibilities for new or refreshed romance from this date through the 31st.
SCORPIO
Concentration is laser-like when focused on the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd. Time spent relaxing may be exceptionally sweet on/near the 4th and 7th. Don't underestimate the positive influence that civic associations, group memberships, or alumni connections can have upon career prospects of the 8th to 12th (Full Moon.) Put appropriate emphasis on advertising and communications from 13th to 27th. The 28th (New Moon), 29th, 30th, and 31st is “roll up your sleeves” time.

A frustrating lull can cause time to drag on the 3rd. Don’t jump to conclusions based upon preliminaries on the 5th or 6th, as early assessments might go through multiple revisions before a final evaluation is complete. Lines of communication are likely to be given a good workout as gossip flies, plans are made, or a trip is arranged from the 20th through 25th. A slip of the tongue may cause troubles forethought can prevent on the 26th.

The work involved in “relationship upkeep” factors into your romantic outlook from the 1st to 5th. There are any number of reasons why playing the field might seem appealing on the 13th, 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th, 18th, and/or 19th, even if most aren’t realistic. Functions of both listening and hearing are equally important in romantic communications of the 21st to 25th.

SAGITTARIUS
It might sound like an old cliché but it’s true that work can be like fun when you enjoy what you’re doing from the 1st to 9th. A planning session or educational venture may be outright inspiring, as well as practical, on the 10th or 11th. Build upon momentum to advance a career objective or get more satisfaction out of a hobby from the 12th (Full Moon) to 27th.

There’s nothing wrong with giving the benefit of the doubt to a longtime, trusted pal that’s grappling with complications or confused circumstances on the 2nd, 3rd, or 4th. Keep financial risks in the “well calculated” zone on/near the 5th. Shutting out valid information just because it makes you uncomfortable probably isn’t wise on the 20th, 21st, 22nd, 23rd, and 24th. Friends or loved ones can help inspire one another when united in a common commitment to fitness during March, especially on the 28th (New Moon), 29th, 30th, and 31st.

Nearly everything about love is either red hot or ice cold from the 1st to 9th, with little falling in between. The more successful you feel about personal achievements, the more confident you’re likely to feel in the world of romance from the 12th (Full Moon) to 19th. Passions are extra zesty on/after the 25th.

CAPRICORN
What is needed to complete a project or start something new might already be on your workbench, in your desk drawer, or otherwise in your possession on the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd. Business travels, near or far, or expansion, large or small, can work to your professional advantage from the 12th (Full Moon) to 27th. Focus is on solid fundamentals from 28th (New Moon) to 31st.

Wrinkles in the fabric of familial harmony or a genealogy might be ironed out more quickly than usual on the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, and/or 5th. Independence means something different to each within a family unit from the 6th to 9th, which makes a lot of sense when you think about it. A turnaround might be surprising on/near the 10th, but it’s probably not a truly “out of the blue” upset. Don’t let someone else’s pessimism drain your confidence or enthusiasm on the 20th, 21st, 22nd, 23rd, or 24th.

Quiet pleasures of companionship are probably far more desirable than the more clamorous excitements of courtship from the 1st to 9th. Attraction burns steadily from the 10th to 19th. A step-by-step building process can lead to a significant personal revelation or relationship development from 24th to 31st.

AQUARIUS
Mega-strides toward a goal can be taken on the 1st. Be realistic about spending throughout the month, especially on the 2nd, 4th, and 7th. Safe methods are most likely to produce predictable results from the 8th to 12th (Full Moon). It’s not cliché to suggest that “outside the box” thinking has an important role to play in advancements of the 26th and 27th. Avoid taking “my way or the highway” tendencies to any great extreme from the 28th (New Moon) to 31st.

Keen instincts provide reliable guidance regarding when to move forward socially and when to maintain distance from the 5th to 9th. Information that travels through the family, friendship, or neighborhood grapevine likely becomes more reliable on/after the 13th. “It is what it is” may seem as good an explanation as any on the 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th, 18th, and 19th.

Drifting on playfully romantic waters can offer a special break from everyday pressures of the 1st to 11th. Love affairs tend to stir a mix of feelings regarding commitment or trust from the 12th (Full Moon) to 19th. Excitement of the 20th to 25th raises high hopes—and probably for some very good reasons.

PISCES

Powers of persuasion can be successfully deployed to seal a deal on the 1st, 2nd, or 3rd. A thorough outline to follow boosts the odds of achieving a financial goal or finding a bargain from the 4th to 9th. There is special authenticity in a heart-to-heart connection made on the 9th, 10th, 11th, or 12th (Full Moon.) A material dream may become a reality on/after the 28th (New Moon). Social possibilities multiply via membership in a gym, congregation, class, or organization on the 29th, 30th, and/or 31st.

The “usual culprits” among co-workers, schoolmates, or associates might make the daily routine feel like a grind on the 5th or 6th. Giving in to the temptation to blow off a tedious task can create more problems than it’s likely to solve on the 13th, 14th, 15th, 16th, and/or 17th. Put materialization before celebration on/near the 26th.

Even a winding or uneven romantic path may ultimately lead in a promising direction from the 1st to 11th. Matters of communication and partnership tend to assume traditional, structured, or clearly defined qualities from the 12th (Full Moon) to 19th. A love interest reveals a new side when out-and-about from 20th to 31st.
